A BILL

To authorize the President to award gold medals on behalf of the Congress to the family of Andrew Jackson Higgins and the wartime employees of Higgins Industries, in recognition of their contributions to the Nation and to the Allied victory in World War II.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4       The Congress finds the following:

5               (1) Andrew Jackson Higgins designed, engi-
6               neered, and produced high speed boats and various 7               types of amphibious military landing craft, later to 8               become known as “Higgins boats”, which were used
9               by Allied forces during World War II.

10              (2) Higgins boats, constructed of wood and 11              steel, transported fully-armed troops, light tanks,
12              field artillery, and other mechanized equipment es-
13              sential to Allied amphibious operations, including 14              the decisive D-Day attack at Normandy, France.

15              (3) Andrew Jackson Higgins also designed, en-
16              gineered, and constructed four major assembly line
17              plants in New Orleans for mass production of Hig-
18              gins landing craft and other vessels vital to the Al-
19              lied forces’ conduct of World War II.

1           (4) Andrew Jackson Higgins' foresight, in pur-
2           chasing the materials needed to produce a large
3           number of boats even before the United States be-4           came embroiled in World War II, contributed to the 5           Nation's readiness when it finally did enter the war.

6           (5) Andrew Jackson Higgins instituted a pro-
7           gressive social policy in his Higgins Industries fac-
8           tories by employing a fully-integrated assembly line
9           work force of more than 20,000 black and white
10          men and women during World War II, with equal
11          pay for equal work, decades before legal require-
12          ments for integration and racial and gender equality
13          were instituted.

14          (6) Prior to November 1940, when Higgins In-15          dustries began producing Higgins boats for the 16          United States Government, the Navy had only 18
17          landing craft in its fleet; by the conclusion of the 18          war, Higgins Industries had produced 20,094 land-19          ing craft of all types and had trained more than 20          30,000 Navy, Marine, and Coast Guard personnel in 21          their use.

22          (7) In 1964, former President Dwight D. Ei-23          senhower said of Andrew Jackson Higgins, "He is 24          the man who won the war for us. If Higgins had not 25          developed and produced those landing craft, we

1 never could have gone in over an open beach. We 2 would have had to change the entire strategy of the 3 war.”

4 (8) Together, Andrew Jackson Higgins and the 5 employees of Higgins Industries provided a decisive
6 and essential contribution to the United States and 7 Allied victory in World War II while practicing racial 8 and gender workplace equality far in advance of the 9 norm for the time.
